My Journey

First and foremost, I offer my heartfelt thanks to God for granting me the wonderful opportunity and privilege of writing songs. It has been—and continues to be—a deeply enriching experience as I meditate on the Book of Psalms. Through every verse and melody, I have discovered comfort, inspiration, and a closer walk with Him.

This book is a reflection of my personal journey with the Psalms—a journey marked by devotion, learning, and spiritual growth. What began as a quiet meditation soon blossomed into songs of praise, shaped by the timeless beauty and wisdom found within these sacred scriptures.

I remain profoundly grateful to the many individuals who encouraged me, inspired me, and believed in me. Their support and expectations have been a constant source of strength. Each of them has, in their own unique way, sown seeds of faith and nurtured my path, watering my journey through the Psalms with kindness and wisdom.

It is my joy to acknowledge those I remember who have contributed to this journey. Their influence has left an indelible mark on both my life and this work.

I count it a profound joy and a cherished blessing to have been born into a family devoted to following Christ. My parents, the late Mr. I. Martin Sundar and the late Mrs. D. Punithavathi, possessed an unwavering passion for worship and a deep reverence for the Lord. Their lives were living testimonies of faith, and their devotion laid the spiritual foundation upon which my own journey was built.

I grew up alongside my sister, M. Janet Nicolin, and my brother, M. Joshua Inbadass. Together, we shared a rhythm of life shaped by prayer, worship, and the teachings of Christ from our earliest days. Our home was filled with songs of praise and moments of quiet devotion, nurturing in us a love for God that continues to guide and inspire us.

Those formative years, enriched by faith and anchored in godly values, remain among my most treasured memories. They not only strengthened our bond as a family but also instilled in us a lifelong commitment to walk in the light of His grace.

As far back as my memory reaches, our home was marked by a simple but steady discipline: every night, without fail, we gathered for family prayer. It was not elaborate, but it was meaningful—woven with songs, Scripture, and shared devotion.

We would begin with a song, chosen at random, followed by a chapter from the Book of Psalms—again, often chosen without plan, yet always fitting. One among us would then pray, each voice taking its turn over time. After that, we would all recite the Lord’s Prayer in Tamil: “Our Father...” (Luke 11:1–4), our voices rising together in familiar reverence.

We continued by reciting a Tamil phrase: “Swami Kirubayaiyirum, Kristhuvay Kirubayaiyirum, Swami Kirubayaiyirum, Amen”—a simple yet earnest plea: “God, show grace; Christ, show grace; God, show grace, Amen.” Then came a beloved hymn, “Ennodirum En...,” the Tamil rendering of “Abide with Me,” carrying with it a quiet sense of closeness to God.

Before closing, we would recite, again in Tamil, the opening verses of Psalm 103: “Praise the Lord, my soul; all my inmost being, praise His holy name. Praise the Lord, my soul, and forget not all His benefits.”

Beyond these nightly gatherings, we were each encouraged to begin our mornings with Scripture. And more often than not, we found ourselves returning to the Psalms—drawn by their brevity, their honesty, and their depth. A chapter could be read in moments, yet its words lingered throughout the day.

Birthdays, too, carried this same imprint of faith. Before any celebration or the cutting of a cake, we would come together in prayer. The one whose birthday it was would be encouraged to read Psalm 103, making it a passage we heard again and again—at least five times a year, if not more. It echoed through family gatherings and special occasions, becoming a familiar thread woven into the fabric of our lives.

Looking back, I realize that if there is any chapter my ears have heard more than any other, it would surely be Psalm 103. Its words are not just remembered—they are lived, carried quietly within me through the years.

We grew up in Chennai, while most of my father’s and mother’s siblings lived in and around Trichy, more than 300 kilometers away. The distance never felt like a barrier; if anything, it became a rhythm woven into our lives.

Every summer holiday and every December break, without much deliberation, we would travel as a family to Trichy and stay there for a week. These visits were in addition to the many occasions that called us there—weddings, family gatherings, and other celebrations that naturally drew us together.

Those journeys were more than just travel; they were a return—to people, to roots, to a shared way of life. Homes would change, faces would gather in different combinations, but one thing remained constant. Wherever we stayed, as long as we were together for the night, family prayer was never omitted.

It did not matter whose house it was or how full the day had been. As night settled in, we would gather once again, just as we did back home. The same simple order, the same familiar voices, the same quiet reverence. And, as always, the Psalms traveled with us.

They were not confined to a place or routine; they moved with us—across cities, across homes, across seasons. Whether in Chennai or Trichy, in our own house or a relative’s, their words found their place among us, as steady and present as ever.

Looking back, it seems as though the Psalms were not just read—they journeyed with us, becoming a faithful companion to our family wherever we went.

We were deeply rooted in our church life. The church was not merely a place we attended; it was a space where our faith was nurtured, shaped, and expressed in song and fellowship.

The hymns and keerthanais we sang left a lasting impression on us. Many of them, in one way or another, echoed the words and spirit of the Psalms. Even when we did not consciously realize it, the language of praise, lament, and thanksgiving from the Psalms was quietly being woven into our hearts through music.

Being part of the choir remains one of the most cherished experiences of my early spiritual journey. Every Sunday, I recall singing a special number drawn from the Psalms, rendered in a distinctive and reverent style. Each verse was sung to the same melody, allowing the sacred words to flow with gentle continuity and grace.

It felt as though we were not merely singing but prayerfully reading the chapter through music. The unchanging tune transformed the verses into chants, echoing with devotion and drawing our hearts into deeper meditation.

During weddings, this same tradition was observed with Psalm 128, its blessings beautifully proclaimed in song, invoking God’s favor upon the newly married couple.

In those moments, the Psalms came alive—timeless, melodic, and profoundly moving—leaving an imprint on my soul that continues to inspire my worship to this day.

As children, my siblings and I were also devoted to Sunday School. It began at what might seem like an unusual hour—three o’clock in the afternoon—but to us, it was something we eagerly looked forward to. There was never a sense of reluctance; rather, there was anticipation.

I remain deeply grateful for the Annas (elder brothers) and uncles who invested their time and energy in us. They were not merely teachers; they were sowers of faith, patiently planting seeds that would bear fruit in the years to come.

One of the practices I remember vividly was the memorization of Psalms. Each week, we were encouraged to learn a Psalm by heart. The following week, when we stood and recited it from memory, we would receive a small gift—often simple stationery items.

To an outsider, it might have seemed insignificant, but to us, it was a great joy. We cherished those rewards, eagerly showing them to our parents, proud not just of the gift but of what we had learned.

Over time, we even built a small collection of pens—each one a quiet reminder of a Psalm committed to memory. Our mentors, wise and considerate, knew how to guide us. They encouraged us without overwhelming us—thankfully, they never asked us to memorize Psalm 119.

In this way, the Psalms continued to travel with us—not only in our homes and family prayers, but also in the life of the church. Even our greetings reflected this shared language of faith. We would greet one another with “Sthothiram,” meaning “Praise the Lord” in Tamil—a simple word, yet rich with meaning.

And wherever there was a time of group prayer, there was a familiar ending. Almost without exception, it would conclude with the words of Psalm 103:1–2. Over time, these verses became deeply embedded within us.

If there is any portion of Scripture that has been truly etched into our hearts, it would be those words. They are so deeply ingrained that even if we were awakened from the depths of sleep, we could recite them without hesitation.

There is something about new songs that brings a fresh surge of spiritual energy. They awaken the heart in a different way—renewing devotion, stirring joy, and drawing us once again into the presence of God. For this, I remain deeply grateful to the many songwriters who have given voice to faith across generations.

Looking closely, one begins to notice a beautiful pattern: many of these songs are deeply rooted in the Psalms. Sometimes it is a single line; at other times, an entire song seems to echo a whole chapter. The Psalms, it seems, have an enduring way of finding expression through melody.

There were songs we sang so often that their words became inseparable from us. “Ennalume Thudipaai,” for instance, carries the spirit and substance of Psalm 103. “Come Bless the Lord” draws directly from Psalm 134. “I Will Enter His Gates” echoes the joy of Psalm 100. And beyond these, there are countless others—too many to name, yet all familiar in their own way.

Each song became a vessel, carrying the words of Scripture into our memory, our worship, and our daily lives. Without realizing it, we were not just singing—we were internalizing the Psalms, line by line, verse by verse.

Even now, when I think back, I cannot begin to count how many songs we have sung, nor can I imagine how many more are yet to be written. If there is anything that could measure such abundance, it would have to be something as vast as the ocean or as endless as the sky.

I remember, from our younger days, a growing fascination with the English language—and with it, a deep love for English songs. There was something about them that felt fresh and intriguing, opening a small window to a wider world beyond what we knew.

In those days, however, access was limited. We could not afford to buy many audio cassettes, and so we found our own way. We would go to a local audio store, purchase a blank cassette, and carefully choose a collection of songs from different albums. The shopkeeper would then record them onto that single tape—a curated treasure, stitched together from many sources.

Those cassettes became precious to us. Each song carried its own memory, its own feeling, its own quiet imprint on our growing years.

Among them, one song has remained with me in a special way. It was By the Rivers of Babylon by Boney M—a song drawn from Psalm 137. Even then, without fully realizing it, I was encountering the Psalms once again, this time through a different language and a different sound.

Looking back, I find it remarkable how the Psalms continued to follow me—crossing not only places and seasons, but even languages and musical styles. What began as a simple desire to listen to English songs became yet another way in which Scripture found its place in my life.

It seemed that no matter where I turned, the Psalms were already there—waiting, echoing, and gently weaving themselves into my story. So it is with songs that glorify God—immeasurable, ever-growing, and overflowing from generation to generation.

In my youth, I became part of another congregation. It marked a new season in my spiritual journey, one defined by deep relationships and intentional growth. There was a strong sense of togetherness among us, a shared commitment to encourage one another and to spur each other on toward love and good deeds.

It was during this time that something began to change—quietly at first, but profoundly—in my personal walk with God.

My prayer life took on a new depth and discipline. I was encouraged to read at least three chapters of the Bible each day and to spend no less than twenty minutes in prayer. This was not left unstructured; we were guided by a simple yet meaningful framework—ACTS: Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication.

Gone were the days of turning only to familiar portions like the Psalms for ease. We were now encouraged to read through entire books of the Bible, steadily and thoughtfully, meditating on them as we went. It required consistency, patience, and a willingness to engage with Scripture more deeply than before. Yet, even in this new rhythm, the Psalms found their way back into my life.

During times of adoration, we were encouraged to pray through the Psalms—to use their words as our own in praising God. What began as an exercise in structured praise slowly became something far more personal. Over time, those prayers transformed into intimate conversations between God and me.

There are moments from those days that I find difficult to put into words. As I prayed through the Psalms, I often felt as though I was stepping into the experiences of their authors. Their cries became my cries; their joy, my joy; their struggles, strangely familiar. It was as if the distance between their lives and mine had quietly disappeared.

The Psalms were no longer just ancient songs—they became companions in my own journey. About a decade ago, this connection deepened even further during a sermon series in the church centered on the Psalms.

During that season, we had the opportunity to serve as song leaders. Each week, we would write songs based on the chapter that had been preached, and at times, we would teach these songs to the congregation.

It was a unique and memorable period—one where Scripture, music, and personal devotion came together in a powerful way. Writing and singing those songs felt like participating in the very tradition the Psalms themselves had begun.

Looking back, I see that the Psalms were not merely something I read or sang. They had become woven into every stage of my life—guiding, shaping, and accompanying me in ways I am still discovering.

Looking back, I often find myself wondering how it all came together so beautifully. I had, in my own way, a quiet inclination toward music—a desire to play, to explore, to express. But in His grace, God gave me Sharmila, and with her came a harmony I could never have imagined on my own.

She is gifted in ways that continue to amaze me. Trained in Carnatic music and classical dance, and equally adept in Western music, she carries within her a rare blend of discipline and artistry.

Yet beyond all technique and accomplishment, it is her voice that touches hearts most deeply. There is a warmth in its timbre and a sincerity in its expression that lingers long after the final note fades.

Through her voice, music becomes more than sound—it becomes an experience, leaving an indelible imprint on every soul privileged to hear it.

Many have described it as “divine,” and I have seen with my own eyes how her singing has moved listeners to tears—not out of performance, but out of something far more profound. There is a sincerity in her worship that cannot be taught; it simply flows from who she is. What has always stood out to me even more than her talent is her conviction.

There were opportunities—real and promising—for her to sing beyond gospel music, even alongside well-known artists. Yet she made a clear and unwavering decision: to use her voice only for songs that glorify God and remain faithful to His Word. It was not a choice made lightly, but one rooted in deep love and reverence. That decision has shaped not only her path, but ours.

In many ways, her musical sensitivity has refined mine. Her presence has helped bring clarity, depth, and excellence to what we do. Many of the songs we have composed carry her touch—subtle yet unmistakable—adding a beauty that words alone cannot capture. I remain, in the simplest sense, her admirer. And I know I am not alone.

But beyond the music, beyond the gifts and the admiration, I am most grateful for who she is in our everyday life. Her love for God and for His church is steady and sincere. Her patience, her quiet strength, and her willingness to stand alongside me through every season have been nothing short of a gift.

Without her support, much of what I have been able to do would not have been possible. She has not only shared in the journey—she has strengthened it. And in every sense of the word, she has been a great blessing in my life.

In time, I began to witness the same thread of grace being woven into the lives of my own children. I remain deeply grateful to God for Jerusha, our daughter, and Jeshar, our son—both of whom have grown up with a natural inclination toward worship, expressed through singing and music. What had once been part of my childhood was now taking on new life in theirs.

Jeshar, with his technical aptitude and creative vision, became an instrument in shaping something unique for our family. He created a YouTube album and gave it a name that carried both meaning and conviction—SATTROOS, an acronym drawn from Psalm 95:1: Shout Aloud To The Rock Of Our Salvation.

It was during the unexpected stillness of the COVID season that this journey began. Confined within our home, yet given the gift of time, we turned once again to music. What started simply—as a collection of songs we had cherished over the years, once stored in audio cassettes and CDs—slowly began to grow into something more.

Then came a gentle prompting—a call to sing in Kannada for the congregation. It marked a new chapter for us. Our journey, which had long moved through Tamil and English, began to expand into Kannada and Hindi. With each new language came a new expression of the same enduring faith. Those recording days remain vivid in my memory.

There we were—Jeshar at the system, carefully managing every detail; Jerusha at the keyboard, bringing melody and harmony to life; and Sharmila, alongside me at the microphones. It was simple, almost modest in its setup, yet rich with purpose. And it was rarely perfect.

One mistake—and we would begin again. Another take, another attempt, another moment of patience. Yet, in the midst of our limitations, something beautiful was taking shape. By God’s grace, what we lacked in resources was made up in perseverance, unity, and quiet joy. (One of the earliest song and to the latest song)

Step by step, the collection grew. We began to sing more songs—some familiar, some newly composed. Along the way, we added not just music, but also short reflections, messages, and words of encouragement. What emerged was not merely an album, but a living expression of our journey as a family.

Looking back, I see how the same thread has continued—through generations, through changing seasons, through different forms. What once echoed in family prayers, church gatherings, and childhood memories has now found a new voice within our home again.

My sincere thanks to all the commentaries that have enriched my understanding of the Scriptures. They provided invaluable insight into their depth, background, and context, guiding me throughout this journey. I remain deeply grateful to the scholars and writers whose works have illuminated the path and strengthened the foundation of this book.

Completing this work using the technologies available today was both a privilege and a marvel. It often left me wondering how, in earlier generations, scholars were able to produce volumes of remarkable work with the limited resources they possessed. Their dedication and perseverance continue to inspire me.

Through this journey, I have learned immensely, and what is presented in this book represents only a small portion—perhaps 10 to 20 percent—of all that I have discovered and absorbed.

I extend my special thanks to the many digital applications that enabled me to complete this project in an unexpectedly short time. Without AI-based tools, I cannot imagine how long it would have taken to compose a song for every Psalm. These technological advancements have truly transformed the creative process and made this endeavor possible.

I also consider myself blessed to belong to a generation that has witnessed extraordinary transitions—from analog to digital, from audio cassettes to pen drives, from having virtually no access to telephones to living in the age of smartphones. We have journeyed from bicycles to four-wheelers, from horn speakers to Bluetooth speakers, and experienced countless other innovations that have reshaped everyday life.

Today, with a single smartphone, we have bid farewell to numerous standalone devices such as alarm clocks, torches, tape recorders and landline phones. Such progress stands as a testament to human ingenuity and divine providence, both of which have played a significant role in bringing this book to completion.

As I bring these reflections to a close, I find myself looking back with a deep sense of wonder. My journey with the Psalms has been nothing short of remarkable—a quiet thread woven through every season of my life. From childhood prayers to family gatherings, from church worship to personal devotion, the Psalms have remained a constant companion.

And yet, this is not an ending.

If anything, it feels like a continuation—a journey that will keep unfolding in the days to come. Even now, when I listen to these songs, they do more than fill the air with melody; they awaken memories. They carry me back to moments of joy, of learning, of growth, and of God’s faithfulness through it all.

With this in mind, I carry a simple but heartfelt desire: that families would rediscover the beauty of worshiping together. To sing together, to fill our homes with songs rooted in the gospel, and to glorify God in every way we can—these are not small things. They shape hearts, build faith, and leave lasting impressions across generations.

It is my prayer that the songs shared here would serve a purpose beyond themselves—that they may comfort the weary, encourage the seeking, and gently call each of us to a higher place of devotion, where our lives more fully reflect the glory of God.

As a small addition to this journey, I have included one more song in this book, titled “Lord, You Are My Shepherd.” It is a weaving together of several passages, capturing in one voice the many ways in which the Lord reveals Himself to us—as our guide, our provider, our refuge, and our ever-present help.

And so, with gratitude in my heart and hope for what lies ahead, I offer this simple refrain:

To God be the glory.

0+	Delight in the law of the Lord	In heaven the Lord laughs	When I lie down and sleep	How long will this go on?	Lead Me, Lord, in your righteousness
5+	Do not make light of the Lord's discipline	Whoever digs a pit will fall into it	O LORD our Lord	I will give thanks to you, O LORD	In times of trouble
10+	When fear tells you to run	The Lord will keep the needy safe	Unfailing Love	The Lord looks down from heaven	In Your tabernacle, Lord
15+	At My Right Hand	I call on you my God	In my distress I called to the Lord	The Heavens Declare the glory of God	May the Lord answer you in trouble's day
20+	In your strength O Lord, be exalted	Do not be far from me	I love the Shepherd of my soul	King of Glory, the Lord Almighty	Show me Your ways, O Lord
25+	I love the habitation	Wait For The Lord	Save your people	The voice of Jehovah is powerful	Sing praise to the Lord
30+	Love the Lord and trust in Him	You are our hiding place	The eyes of the Lord	Fear The Lord, O you his saints	Plead the cause, O Lord
35+	In the shadow of your wings	Do not fret of those who are evil	We will have to feel	Remove your gaze from me	Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord
40+	By this I know, O loving God	Why, my soul, are you downcast?	At the altar of our God	Rise up and help us	Your throne, O God

Sections

The Book of Psalms is traditionally divided into five sections, often referred to as the Five Books of Psalms. This arrangement mirrors the five books of the Pentateuch (Genesis through Deuteronomy), symbolically emphasizing the Psalms as a guide for worship and devotion.

Groups

Within the Book of Psalms, several distinct collections are grouped by titles, themes, liturgical use, or authorship. These named groupings—like the Songs of Ascents—offer valuable insight into the structure and worship traditions of ancient Israel.

Groups	Chapters	Particulars
Songs of the Ascents	120-134	Pilgrim songs sung while going up to Jerusalem
Hallelujah Psalms	146-150	Marked by “Praise the Lord” (Hallelujah)
Penitential Psalms	6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143	Repentance and confession
Messianic Psalms	2, 18, 20–21, 45, 72, 89, 110, 132	kingship, Messiah, God’s rule
Wisdom Psalms	1, 37, 49, 73, 112, 127, 128, 133	Righteous living, contrast of good vs evil
Imprecatory Psalms	35, 69, 109	Calling for justice against evil
Enthronement Psalms	93, 95–99	The Lord reigns
Egyptian Hallel	113–118	Traditionally sung during Passover
Great Hallel	136	Repeated line: “His mercy endures forever”
Lament Psalms	3–7, 13, 22, 42–43, 74, 88	Personal and communal cries to God
Praise Psalms	8, 19, 29, 33, 100, 145–150	Pure praise and worship
Creation Psalms	8, 19, 29, 65, 104, 148	God as Creator
Acrostic Psalms	9-10, 25, 34, 37, 111, 112, 119, 145	Acrostic psalms are ones in which each verse—or group of verses—begins with successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet (Aleph to Tav)

Combo

This song is a weaving together of several passages, capturing in one voice the many ways in which the Lord reveals Himself to us—as our guide, our provider, our refuge, and our ever-present help.

Lord You Are My Shepherd

Lord, You are my Shepherd
You are my Saviour
You are my Refuge and my Shield
Lord, You are my Fortress
You are my Shelter
You are my Father and my Strength
Send forth your light and your truth
Let them guide, you're my joy and my delight

*Praise be to Your Glorious name forever
May the whole earth
Filled with gloria (2)*

Lord, You're my Redeemer
You're my Salvation
You are my Helper and my Rock
Lord, You are so faithful
You are so gracious
Full of compassion, rich in love
When we taste and see you're so good
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in You

Psalm 1

Psalm 1 - Delight in the law of the Lord

*Delight in the law of the Lord
Meditate day and night
Delight in the law of the Lord
Walking in His light*

You will be like a tree
Planted by the waters
Bearing fruit in season
With leaves that never wither

You will not walk with the wicked
Nor stand with sinners' ways
You will not sit with the mockers
But walk in righteous ways

The Lord is watching over you
Guiding all your ways
The Lord is watching over you
Now and all your days

Psalm 2

Psalm 2 - In heaven the Lord laughs

*In heaven the Lord laughs and laughs
As He sits on His throne, He laughs and laughs
When He sees the people plot and plot
Against Him and His chosen ones*

Why do the nations conspire
And the people plot in vain?
Can't they see what God has done
Through the people He has called

Why do kings of earth rise up
And rulers plot together?
Didn't they know He scoffs at them
In His anger He rebukes them

Be wise, be warned
Serve Him with fear
Rejoice with trembling
Blessed are those Who take refuge in Him

Psalm 3

Psalm 3 - When I lie down and sleep

*When I lie down and sleep
Lord, you are a shield for me
When I wake up from sleep
I see how you sustain me*

I will not fear
Ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves
Against me on every side

I will not hear
When many say of me
“There is no help for me”
“No help for me in God”

I will call out
When troublemakers grow
You have a plan, Lord
You are in control

Psalm 4

Psalm 4 - How long will this go on?

*How long will this go on?
Turning glory into shame
How long will this go on?
Hearts chasing empty lies*

We know, Lord, when we call You
You will answer us, O God
Give us relief from our distress
Kindly show mercy on us

We know, Lord, You have set apart
The godly for Yourself
Help us to stand in awe
To meditate and be still

We know, Lord, You have a plan
Let Your light shine on us
Fill our hearts with joy
When the godly are blessed

Psalm 5

Psalm 5 - Lead Me, Lord, in your righteousness

*Lead me, Lord, in your righteousness
Make your way straight before me
Surely, Lord, you bless the righteous
You surround them with your favor*

You are not a God
Who is pleased with wickedness
Evil cannot dwell with you

The arrogant cannot Cannot stand in your presence
You hate all who do wrong

For there is no truth in their mouth
Their heart is filled with malice
Their throat is an open grave
And they flatter with their tongue

Psalm 6

Psalm 6 - Do not make light of the Lord's discipline

*Do not make light of the Lord's discipline
Do not lose heart when he rebukes you
The Lord disciplines the one He loves
Chastens everyone whom He receives*

We might be weak and pining
Our bones can be in agony
Our soul can be in deep anguish
Jehovah Rapha, He is our healer

We can be worn out from our groaning
Our life can be filled with weeping
Our couch can be drenched with tears
Jehovah Rapha, He is our healer

Our eyes can grow weak with sorrow
Eyes can grow old because of enemies
We can be around those who do evil
Jehovah Rapha, He is our healer

Psalm 7

Psalm 7 - Whoever digs a pit will fall into it

*Whoever digs a pit
Will fall into it
If someone rolls a stone
It will roll back on them*

The trouble they cause
Recoils on them
Their violence comes down
On their own heads

God is a just judge
Deals with them every day
If they don't repent
God will sharpen His sword

He'll bring evil to an end
And make the righteous secure
For the righteous God
Tests the hearts and minds

Psalm 8 - O LORD our Lord

*O LORD our Lord, how majestic
Is your name in all the earth
You have set your glory, glory, glory

From the lips of children
You have ordained praise
Because of your enemies
To silence the foe

To see the work of your fingers
The moon and the stars
What is man you are mindful of him
That you care for him?

You made him ruler
Over the works of your hands
The beasts of the field, the birds of the air
And the fish of the sea

Psalm 9

Psalm 9 - I will give thanks to you, O LORD

I will give thanks to You, O LORD, with all my heart

I will tell of all Your marvelous works

I will be glad and rejoice in You

I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High

You have upheld my right and my cause

You sat on the throne, judging in righteousness

You rule the world in righteousness

You judge the people with equity

You are a refuge for the oppressed

You are a stronghold in times of trouble

You will never forget the needy

You are known by Your acts of justice

Psalm 10

Psalm 10 - In times of trouble

In times of trouble, we think God is hiding
In times of weakness, we feel God stands far
In times of terror, we might give in to fear
In times of pain, we might lose hope

*The Lord will hear the desires of the humble
The Lord will take their grief in His hands
The Lord is King forever and ever
He is the helper of the helpless*

In their pride, some might not seek Him
In all their thoughts, there's no room for God
They might say, "Nothing will shake me."
They might swear, "No one will harm me."

Why does the wicked man revile God?
Why does he say, "God will never notice"?
Why does he lie in wait to catch the helpless?
Why does he boast about his cravings?

Psalm 11

Psalm 11 - When fear tells you to run

*When fear tells you to run
Choose to trust our mighty God
Nothing on earth may feel solid
But heaven is not shaken*

The Lord is in his holy temple
The Lord is on his heavenly throne
He observes everyone on earth
His eyes examine them

The Lord tests the righteous
He hates those who love violence
For the Lord loves justice
The upright will see His face

The Lord calls to His mountain
Fear calls to its mountain
If the foundations are destroyed
What can the righteous do?

Psalm 12

Psalm 12 - The Lord will keep the needy safe

*The Lord will keep the needy safe
And will protect them forever*

The needy might groan
The poor might be plundered
The Lord will protect them
From those who malign them

Faithful might have vanished
People might lie to their neighbor
They might flatter with their lips
Might speak with a double heart

The words of the Lord
Are pure and flawless
Like silver refined in a furnace
Purified seven times over

Psalm 13 - Unfailing Love

Unfailing love

I trust in your unfailing love

Save me in your unfailing love

How long, Lord? Will you forget me forever?

How long will you hide your face from me?

How long must I wrestle with my thoughts?

How long will my enemy triumph over me?

Look on me and answer, Lord my God

Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death

May your unfailing love be with us, Lord

Even as we put our hope in you

Psalm 14

Psalm 14 - The Lord looks down from heaven

*The Lord looks down from heaven
Upon the children of men
To see if there are any Who understand, who seek God*

They have all turned aside
Together they become corrupt
There is none who does good
No, not one; no, not one

The fool says in his heart,
“There is no God”
There is none who does good
No, not one; no, not one

If we don't pray to God
We might prey on the godly
We'll be in great fear
For God is with the godly

Psalm 15

Psalm 15 - In Your tabernacle, Lord

*In Your tabernacle, Lord
Who may abide?
On Your holy hill, O Lord
Who may dwell?*

Is it not the one
Whose walk is blameless?
Is it not the one
Who does what is righteous?

Is it not the one
Who speaks the truth in his heart?
Is it not the one
Who does not change his word?

Is it not the one
Who honors those who fear You?
Is it not the one
Who cares for the needy?

Psalm 16 - At My Right Hand

*At my right hand
You are at my right hand
Not be shaken
I will not be shaken*

Keep me safe O God
Keep me safe
I take refuge
In You I take refuge

No good thing
I have no good thing
You're my Lord
I said, "You're my Lord"

You gave the path of life
My heart is glad
With You my heart is glad

Psalm 17

Psalm 17 - I call on you my God

*I call on you, my God
For you will answer me
Turn your ear to me
And hear my plea*

Show me the wonders of your great love
You who save by your right hand

Keep me as the apple of your eye, O God
May your eyes see what is right

Hide me in the shadow of your wings, God
Some want to throw me to the ground

Psalm 18

Psalm 18 - In my distress I called to the Lord

*In my distress I called to the Lord
I cried to my God for help
From his temple he heard my voice
My cry came before him, into his ears*

For who is God besides the Lord?
And who is the Rock except our God?
It is God who arms me with strength
And keeps my way secure

As for God, his way is perfect
He shields all who take refuge in Him
It is God who took hold of me
And turns my darkness into light

To the faithful you show yourself faithful
To the blameless you show yourself blameless
To the pure you show yourself pure
But to the devious you show yourself shrewd

Psalm 19

Psalm 19 - The Heavens Declare the glory of God

*The heavens declare the glory of God
The skies proclaim the work of his hands
Day after day they pour forth speech
Night after night, display knowledge*

The law of the Lord is perfect
Reviving the soul
Statutes of the Lord are trustworthy
Making wise the simple

The precepts of the Lord are upright
Rejoicing the heart
Commands of the Lord are radiant
Giving light to the eyes

The fear of the Lord is holy Enduring forever
Ordinances of the Lord are sure
Altogether righteous

Psalm 20

Psalm 20 - May the Lord answer you in trouble's day

May the Lord answer you in trouble's day
And drive all fear and doubt away
May the name of God be your defense
And guard your heart with strength immense

May He send you help from heaven above
And fill your soul with peace and love
May He grant the desires deep in your heart
And bless each plan from the very start

May He remember each sacrifice you raise
And honor them with endless praise
May the Lord fulfill each prayer you make
And guide each step you choose to take

May we shout for joy in your victory
And lift His name for all to see

Psalm 21

Psalm 21 - In your strength O Lord, be exalted

*In your strength, O Lord, be exalted
In your strength, O Lord, we rejoice
In your strength, O Lord, we will sing
For all that you have done to us*

Through the victories you gave Through your splendor and majesty
Through your unending blessings
Your presence makes us glad

Through your gracious hand
Through your mighty power
Through your unfailing love
We will not be shaken

Your hand will find all your enemies
Your right hand will find those who hate you
You will make them turn their backs
When you aim at them with a drawn bow

Psalm 22

Psalm 22 - Do not be far from me

*Do not be far from me
For trouble is near
Do not be far from me
For You are my strength*

My God, my God
Why have you forsaken me?
My God, my God
Why don't you answer me?

My heart, my heart
Has turned to wax
My tongue sticks to
The roof of my mouth

My bones, my bones
Are out of joint
Like water, like water
I am poured out

Come quickly to help me
Deliver me, rescue me
I will declare your name
And I will praise you

Psalm 23

Psalm 23 - I love the Shepherd of my soul

*I love the Shepherd of my soul
Wherever I go, whatever I do
His goodness and love follow me
All the days of my life*

He is my Jehovah Jireh
He will provide, I shall not want
He is my Jehovah Shalom
He leads me beside peaceful waters

He is my Jehovah Rophe
He heals me and restores my soul
He is my Jehovah Tsidkenu
He leads me in the paths of righteousness

He is my Jehovah Shammah
He is there, He is with me
He is my Jehovah Nissi
My banner in the presence of my enemies

Psalm 24

Psalm 24 - King of Glory, the Lord Almighty

*King of glory, the Lord Almighty
I lift the gates of my heart to you
King of glory, strong and mighty
Come into my heart and reign*

The earth is yours and everything in it
The world is yours and all who live in it

Who can stand in your holy place?
Those whose hands and hearts are pure

Your face, O God, you want me to seek
Your grace, O God, I want you to show

Psalm 25

Psalm 25 - Show me Your ways, O Lord

*Show me Your ways, O Lord
Teach me Your paths, O Lord
Lead me in Your truth, O Lord
On You I wait all day long*

In You, O Lord, I put my trust
Do not let me be put to shame
Your paths are mercy and truth
To those who follow Your ways

In You, O Lord, I take refuge
Guard my life and rescue me
My eyes are ever on You
Release me when I am ensnared

In You, O Lord, I put my hope
Let integrity preserve me
Turn to me and show mercy
When I am in deep distress

Psalm 26 - I love the habitation

*I love the habitation
Of your house, O Lord
And I love the place
Where your glory dwells*

For your loving kindness
It is before my eyes
I love to walk, O Lord
In the light of your truth

For your wonderful deeds
It is before my eyes
I love to declare, O Lord
And praise you loudly

For the great assembly
It is before my eyes
I love to praise you, O Lord
And trust in you always

Psalm 27 - Wait For The Lord

*Wait for the Lord, be strong
And wait for the Lord
Wait for the Lord, take heart
And wait for the Lord*

He is our light and our salvation
And stronghold of our life
He will keep us safe in His dwelling
And set us high upon a rock

He will hear our voice when we call Him
And show his wonderful love
He is our savior and our helper
Leading us in His path

Let us seek the Lord with this one thing
To dwell in the house of the Lord
And gaze upon His beauty
All the days of our life

Psalm 28

Psalm 28 - Save your people

*Save Your people Bless Your chosen ones
Be their shepherd
And carry them forever*

You know the hands
Of those who do evil
Their deeds and their works
Save Your chosen ones

We want to lift our hands
To You, our strength and shield
As we call to You, Lord
Hear our cry for mercy

We know Your gracious hands
Can do mighty wonders
Our hearts leap for joy
For You have heard our cries

Psalm 29

Psalm 29 - The voice of Jehovah is powerful

The voice of Jehovah is powerful
The voice of Jehovah is majestic
His voice will break; His voice will shake
His voice will make all cry, "Glory"

*Glory, give unto the Lord
Glory, glory and strength
Glory, give unto the Lord
Glory, glory due his name*

The voice is over the mighty waters
The voice with flashes of lightning
His voice will strike; His voice will twist
His voice will make all cry, "Glory"

The Lord sat as king at the flood
The Lord sits as king forever
The Lord will bless; the Lord gives strength
The Lord will make all cry, "Glory"

Psalm 30

Psalm 30 - Sing praise to the Lord

*Sing praise to the Lord
You His godly ones
Remember his holiness
By giving thanks to Him*

For His favor lasts a lifetime
For His anger lasts only a moment

Weeping may stay for the night
But rejoicing comes in the morning

He can turn wailing into dancing
Sackcloth to the clothes of joy

He can lift you out of the depths
He can spare you from the grave

Psalm 31

Psalm 31 - Love the Lord and trust in Him

Do you think you are in distress?
Do your eyes grow weak with sorrow?
Does your soul grow with grief?
Do you see a trap set for you?

*Love the Lord and trust in Him
He preserves the faithful
Be strong and take heart
All you who hope in the Lord*

Is your life consumed by anguish?
Your strength fails because of affliction?
Do your bones grow weak?
Do you feel like broken pottery?

God will let His face shine on you
He will save you in His unfailing love
He will fill you with His goodness
He will keep you safe and sound

Psalm 32

Psalm 32 - You are our hiding place

*You are our hiding place
You will protect us
You'll surround us with
The songs of deliverance*

Blessed is he
Whose transgressions are forgiven
Whose sins are covered

Blessed is the one
Whose sin the Lord does not count
Blessed is the one
In whose spirit is no deceit

Who puts his trust in the Lord
Blessed is he
Who follows the way of the Lord

Psalm 33

Psalm 33 - The eyes of the Lord

*The eyes of the Lord
Are on those who fear Him
And those who hope in His mercy
May the righteous rejoice in Him*

For the word of the Lord is right
And all His work is done in truth
The earth is full to the brim
With the goodness of the Lord

By the word, the heavens were made
Their starry host by the breath of His mouth
He piles up the water of the sea
He puts the oceans in storehouses

Let all the earth fear the Lord
Let all the people revere Him
Let us wait in hope for the Lord
Let us trust in His holy name

Psalm 34

Psalm 34 - Fear The Lord, O you his saints

*Fear the Lord, O you his saints
Those who fear Him lack nothing
Taste and see that the Lord is good Blessed are those who take refuge*

You want to see many good days
Keep your tongue from evil
And your lips from speaking lies
Turn from evil and do good

Lions may grow weak and hungry
Seek the Lord lack no good thing
He will wipe all our tears
Delivers us from all our fears

Eyes of the Lord are on the holy Face of the Lord against unholy
Close to those who have a broken heart
Helps them not to have a broken bone

Psalm 35

Psalm 35 - Plead the cause, O Lord

*Plead the cause, O Lord, with those Who strive with Your chosen ones
Please, O Lord, fight against those Who fight against Your chosen ones*

Can they hide a net without cause?
Can they dig a pit without cause?

Can they repay evil for good?
Can they slander without ceasing?

Can they mock so maliciously?
Can they devise deceitful schemes?

Psalm 36 - In the shadow of your wings

In the shadow of your wings (2)
We take refuge, we take refuge
In the shadow of your wings

Your love, Lord, reaches to the heavens
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies
Your righteousness is like the great mountains
Your judgments are a great deep

We feast on the abundance of your house
We drink from your river of delights
For with you is the fountain of life
In your light we see light

How priceless is your unfailing love
Pour out on those who love you
Pour out your righteousness
To the upright in heart

Psalm 37

Psalm 37 - Do not fret of those who are evil

*Do not fret of those who are evil
Do not envy those who do wrong
Be still before the Lord, our God
Hope in the Lord and keep His way*

Trust in the Lord and do what is right
Dwell in the Lord and you will be safe
He'll give you the desires of your heart
When you take delight in the Lord

Turn from evil and do what is right
You will dwell in the land forever
He'll not forsake His faithful ones
As you know, the Lord loves the just

The Lord knows the days of the upright
Their inheritance shall be forever
In times of disaster they will not wither
In days of famine they shall be filled

Like a burden too heavy to bear

All our desires are before Him
Our sighing is not hidden from Him

All our suffering is before Him
And pain can be ever with us

Psalm 39

Psalm 39 - Remove your gaze from me

*Remove your gaze from me
That I may regain strength
Before I go away and am no more
Remove your gaze from me*

I want to guard my ways
And keep my tongue from sin
I want to remain silent
But my sorrow increases

Show me, Lord, my life's end
And the number of my days
Let me know how frail I am
But my hope is in you

Everyone is but a breath
Even those who seem secure
We may heap up riches
Not knowing who will get them

Psalm 40 - Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord

*Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord (3)
Those who seek Him will be glad in Him*

If you wait for Him
He will turn to you
He will hear our plea
Will set our feet on a rock

Many are His wonders
Many are His plans
Many are His deeds
Too many to declare

The Lord is righteous
He is faithful
He's so loving
And He is great

Psalm 41

Psalm 41 - By this I know, O loving God

*By this I know, O loving God
That you are pleased with me
Because my enemy, O God
Does not triumph over me*

When I have regard for the poor
You deliver me in times of trouble
You preserve me and keep me alive
You don't hand me over to my foes

When I have regard for the poor
You sustain me on my sickbed
You restore me from the bed of illness
You will bless me where I live

My foes might speak evil of me
They might imagine the worst of me
Have mercy on me, O God
Set me in your presence forever

Psalm 42

Psalm 42 - Why, my soul, are you downcast?

*Why, my soul, are you downcast?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God
For I will yet praise him
My Savior and my God*

With shouts of joy and praise
I used to go to the house of God
Now my soul thirsts for God
When can I go and meet with God?

By day the Lord directs his love
At night His song is with me
Now my tears are food, day and night
How I long to pour out to God

I say to God, "You are my Rock"
Why must I go about mourning?
Now my bones suffer agony
As foes taunt, "Where is your God?"

Psalm 43 - At the altar of our God

*At the altar of our God
Let us praise Him
With the harp and lyre
For He is our exceeding joy*

Let not our souls be disturbed
Let not our souls be downcast
Let us put our hope in God
Our Savior and our God

Let God send His light
Let God send His truth
Let them lead us to Him
To the place where He dwells

Let God be our stronghold
Let us not go about in mourning
May our God deliver us
From those who are unjust

Psalm 44 - Rise up and help us

*Rise up and help us
Do not reject us
You know the secrets
Of the heart*

We feel rejected
We feel dishonored
We live in disgrace
All day long

We are considered
As sheep to be slaughtered
We face oppression
All day long

We will praise your Name forever
We boast in your power
All day long

Psalm 45 - Your throne, O God

*Your throne, O God
Is forever and ever
A scepter of righteousness
Is the scepter of Your kingdom*

You are anointed with grace
You are clothed with splendor
In Your majesty, ride victoriously
For truth, humility and justice

You love righteousness
And hate wickedness
Let Your right hand, O God
Achieve awesome deeds

Let Your chosen ones
Worship You, O God
Let them live their lives
To delight your heart

Psalm 46

Psalm 46 - God is our refuge and strength

*The Lord of hosts is with us
God is our refuge and strength
The Lord of hosts is with us
God is our refuge and strength*

Though the earth give way
Though the mountains fall
Though the waters roar and foam
God is our refuge and strength

Though the nations rage
Though the kingdoms fall
With God's voice, the earth melts
God is our refuge and strength

God is our refuge and strength
A very present help in trouble
Be still; He will be exalted
Among the nations and in the earth

Psalm 47

Psalm 47 - Clap your hands

*Clap your hands, clap, clap, clap
Shout to God, shout, shout, shout
Clap your hands, all you people
Shout to God with joyful praise*

For the Lord Most High is awesome
The great King over all the earth

For God reigns over the nations
God sits on His holy throne

For the shields of the earth belong to God
God is greatly exalted

Psalm 48 - Great is the Lord

*Great is the Lord
Most worthy of praise
He is our God
Forever and ever*

We have heard
We have seen
How mighty you are!
With your unfailing love

Your praise, O God
Reaches to
The ends of the earth

Your right hand is filled
With righteousness
We are glad
For you are our judge

Psalm 49 - Why should we fear in days of evil

Why should we fear in days of evil

When deceivers surround us

No one can redeem the life of another
Or give to God a ransom for them

God will redeem us from the grave
He will surely take us to Himself

Those who trust in fleeting wealth
Will never see the light of life

Psalm 50 - Whoever offers praise glorifies Him

*Whoever offers praise glorifies Him
Whoever is blameless will see God's salvation
Whoever calls on Him in the day of trouble
God will deliver them; they shall glorify Him*

Let the saints gather to Him
Those who made a covenant with Him
Let the heavens declare His righteousness
For He is a God of justice

God will shine forth out of Zion
He shall come and shall not keep silence
A fire shall devour before Him
A tempest shall rage around Him

When the wicked went against Him
And when God kept silent
They thought God was like them
But God will set them in order

Psalm 51 - Have Mercy On Me

*Have mercy on me
According to your unfailing love
According to your great compassion
Cleanse me from sin
Oh, have mercy on me*

I have sinned against you, Lord
And done what is evil in your sight
For I know my transgressions
And my sin is always before me

Cleanse with hyssop, and I will be clean
Wash, I'll be whiter than snow
Let me hear joy and gladness
Let the bones you've crushed rejoice

Create in me a pure heart, God
Renew a right spirit within me
Do not cast me from your presence
Nor take your Spirit from me.

My tongue will sing of your righteousness
And my mouth will declare your praise

Psalm 52

Psalm 52 - It doesn't make me happy

It doesn't make me happy
When I see people boast of evil
Is it not a disgrace in the eyes of God?
What will make them understand?

*It is better for people
If they make God their stronghold
If they trust in God's unfailing love
They will be like an olive tree*

It doesn't make me happy
When I see people practice deceit
Some love evil rather than good
What will turn them around?

It doesn't make me happy
When I see some love harmful words
When they destroy others
Will not God uproot them?

Psalm 53

Psalm 53 - Light has come into the world

*Light has come into the world
But people loved darkness
Because their deeds were evil
They will not come into the light*

Do all these evildoers know nothing?
They devour people of the light
As though they are eating bread
They never call on God

Do all these evildoers know nothing?
They are overwhelmed with dread
Where there was nothing to dread
They say, "There is no God"

Do all these evildoers know nothing?
Those who do evil hate the light
For fear that their deeds will be exposed
Their actions are evil

Psalm 54

Psalm 54 - By your name O God, save me

*By your name, O God, save me
By your might, O God, vindicate me*

Elohim, Adonai, Jehovah
Listen to the words of my mouth

Elohim, Adonai, Jehovah
Ebenezer, you hold me up

Elohim, Adonai, Jehovah
Save me from all my troubles

Psalm 55

Psalm 55 - God, I will trust in you

Attend to me and hear me
I mourn in my complaint
For the pressure I face
As few bring trouble upon me

*God, I will trust in you
I lay my burdens before you
God, you will never let
The righteous be shaken*

My heart is in anguish within me
The terror of death sweeps over me
Fear and trembling come upon me
Horror has overwhelmed me

If I had the wings of a dove
I would fly away and be at rest
I would hurry to my place of shelter
Far from the tempest and storm

Psalm 56

Psalm 56 - In God, whose word I praise

*In God, whose word I praise
In the Lord, whose word I praise
In God I trust and am not afraid
What can man do to me?*

In their pride, many attack me
All day long they press their assault
All day long they pursue me
When I am afraid, I put my trust in God

In their schemes, they seek my ruin
All day long they twist my words
All day long they watch my steps
When I am afraid, I put my trust in God

Vows made to God are binding upon me
All day long I render praises
All day long God takes care of me
When I am afraid, I put my trust in God

Psalm 57

Psalm 57 - Your labor in the Lord is not in vain

*Your labor in the Lord is not in vain
Stand firm; let nothing move you
Always excel in the work of the Lord
Your labor in the Lord is not in vain*

You may be in the midst of lions
Forced to dwell among beasts
Whose teeth are spears and arrows
Whose tongues are sharp swords

A net may be spread for your feet
A pit may be dug in your path
Net and pit God knows it
Your tears and fears God hears it

Take refuge in the shadow of His wings
Have a steadfast heart and sing to Him
God's love reaches to the heavens
His faithfulness reaches to the skies

Psalm 58 - How fitting it would be

*How fitting it would be
If voices chose the light
Leaders speaking truth
Instead of fading from the fight*

What gives them the courage
To stay the silent ones
While hearts are full of schemes
And hands mete out the wrongs?

Sometimes their words
Are like the venom of snakes
Their ears closed to wisdom
Ignoring what it takes

Do they not realize
There's a God who sees it all
A God who will reward
The righteous who stand tall?

Psalm 59

Psalm 59 - I will sing of your love

The mighty gather against me
Not for my transgression
Not for my sin, O Lord
They lie in wait for my life

*I will sing of your love
I will sing of your strength
I will sing, I will sing
For you are my fortress*

The mighty go all around the city
Mouth filled with lies
Words sharp as swords
They think, "Who can hear us?"

The mighty will see your power
You will go before me
And do the needful
I will watch for you

Psalm 60

Psalm 60 - The Banner of Truth

*The banner, the banner of truth
We stand under God's banner of truth
He will save us with His right hand
He will hear us when we are troubled
Let's hold on to the banner of truth*

The banner will show us His power
The banner will show us His love
The banner will show us His strength
Let's hold on to the banner of truth

The banner will help us in hardship
The banner will help us not stagger
The banner will make us victorious
Let's hold on to the banner of truth

Psalm 63

Psalm 63 - Your Love Is Better Than Life

*Your love is better than life
My lips will glorify you
I will praise you as long as I live
In your name I will lift up my hands*

My soul thirsts for you
My body longs for you
In a dry and weary land
Where there is no water

My soul will be filled
As with the richest of foods
With singing lips O God
My mouth will praise you

My soul clings to you
Your right hand upholds me
I sing in the shadow of your wings
Because You are my help

Psalm 64

Psalm 64 - At the name of our Lord

*At the name of our Lord
Every knee should bow
In heaven and on earth
And under the earth*

If anyone shoots at the blameless
Will not God shoot His arrows at them?

If anyone devises an evil plan
Will not God have a plan for them?

If anyone does evil without fear
Will not God make them fear Him?

Psalm 65

Psalm 65 - Blessed are those you choose

*Blessed are those you choose
Taking them near your courts
Filling them with good things
Of your house, of your holy temple*

They will be clothed with gladness
They will be covered with promises
Their carts overflow with abundance
They will shout for joy and sing

They know your power and strength
They know your righteous deeds
They know your loving kindness
They will shout for joy and sing

They are filled with living water
They're filled with awe at your wonders
Where morning dawns, where evening fades
They will shout for joy and sing

Psalm 66

Psalm 66 - How great is our God's power

*How great is our God's power
All the earth bows down to Him
Sing the glory of His name
Let the sound of His praise be heard*

Come and see what God has done
His awesome deeds for everyone

Come and hear, all you who fear God
His unfailing love saves us all

Come, let us rejoice in Him
He rules forever by His power

Psalm 67

Psalm 67 - Let the peoples praise you

*Let the peoples praise You, O God
Let all the peoples praise You*

May God be gracious to us and bless us
And make His face shine on us
So that your ways may be known on earth
Your salvation among all nations

May the nations be glad and sing for joy
For you rule the peoples with equity
May God bless us abundantly
May all the ends of the earth worship him

Psalm 68

Psalm 68 - May the righteous be glad

*May the righteous be glad
And rejoice before God
May they be happy and joyful*

He is the father to the fatherless
He is a defender of widows
He sets the lonely in families
Leads out the prisoners with singing

Our God daily bears our burdens
Our God is a God who saves
Sing to God; Sing praise to the Lord
Proclaim the power of God.

Summon your power, God
Show us your strength, our God
As you have done before

Psalm 69

Psalm 69 - This will please the Lord

*This will please the Lord
More than any sacrifice
Praise God's name in song
Magnify Him with thanksgiving*

In the time of His favor
Let us pray to our Lord
In the truth of His salvation
Our God will answer us

In His tender tender mercies
Our God will turn to us
In His good lovingkindness
Our God will hear us

May those who hope in you
Let them not be disgraced
May those who seek you, God
Let them not be ashamed

Psalm 70

Psalm 70 - I am in pain, O Lord

I am in pain, O Lord
I need some help, O Lord
I feel that I am poor and needy
Lord, come quickly to me

*I know that those who seek You
And those who long for You
Always say, "The Lord is great"
Yes, they say, "The Lord is great"*

You know my heart, O Lord
You know my thoughts, O Lord
You know the way I feel
Lord, come quickly to me

Some want to take my life
Some want to bring me strife
Some say to me, "Aha! Aha!"
Lord, come quickly to me

Psalm 71

Psalm 71 - We want to declare your power

*We want to declare your power
To the next generation
We want to tell of your mighty acts
To all who are to come*

My mouth will tell of your righteous deeds
Of your saving acts all day long
My tongue will tell of your righteous acts
Your mighty power all day long

My mouth is filled with songs of praise
With your glory all day long
My lips will shout, shout for joy
Your faithfulness all day long

You're my rock, my strong refuge
I'll sing to you more and more
You're my hope and my trust
I'll praise you more and more

Psalm 72

Psalm 72 - O Lord we need your grace

*O Lord, we need Your grace
To lead Your chosen race*

Help us to lead in righteousness
Your afflicted ones with justice
Let the mountains bring forth peace
And the hills, the fruit of righteousness

Help us defend the afflicted
And save the children of the needy
May the righteous flourish
May there be abundant peace

Help us to be like the rain
Falling on a mown field
Help us to bring You glory
For You do marvelous deeds

Psalm 73

Psalm 73 - Whom have I in heaven but you

*Whom have I, whom have I
Whom have I, whom have I
In heaven but you....
You are my strength*

When I see wicked, always carefree
Increase in wealth, have no struggles
Bodies are healthy, free from the burdens
Not plagued by the disease, pride is their necklace
Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure
And washed my hands with innocence
All day long I have been plagued
Have been punished, every morning

When I see God, I understood
Their final destiny, my heart was grieved
I was senseless, brute beast before Him
He guides with His counsel, take me to glory
Surely God is good to us
To those who are pure in heart
I have made the Lord my refuge
I will tell of all His deeds

Psalm 74

Psalm 74 - God You are our King

*God, You are our King
From long ago
Working salvation
In the midst of the earth*

Remember Your congregation
Which You have purchased of old
The people of your inheritance
Which you have redeemed

Remember the troublemakers
The way they mock you, Lord
Do not let these wild beasts
Destroy your turtledoves

Remember your mighty power
The way you divided the sea
Do not let the oppressed
Retreat in disgrace, Lord

Psalm 75

Psalm 75 - As for me I will declare this

*As for me, I will declare this Declare this forever and ever
As for me, I will sing praise
I will sing praise to my God*

When God chooses the proper time
He will, He will judge uprightly
When the earth and all people quake
He will, He will hold its pillars firm

God said to the boastful
Do not, do not deal boastfully
God said to the wicked
Do not, do not lift up the horn

God is the one who judges
He puts; He puts down one
God is the one who judges
He exalts, He exalts another

You who are near Acknowledge God's power*

God alone is to be feared
From heaven He judges
Let the earth fear Him
And stand still before Him

The wrath of man is nothing
Compared to the wrath of God
The more men rage against Him
The more God is glorified

Our God is more glorious
More majestic than the mountains
No one can, no one can Raise a hand against Him

Psalm 77

Psalm 77 - Let us remember the deeds of the Lord

*Let us remember the deeds of the Lord
Let us remember the wonders of old
Let us meditate on all His work
And thank Him for all He has done*

Who is so great a God as our God?
We know His ways are holy
He is the God who works wonders
Who displays His power to us

Who is so great a God as our God?
He will not reject us forever
He shows His favor again and again
His mercies will never cease

Who is so great a God as our God?
He leads His people like a flock
Through the sea and the mighty waters
Though His footprints were not seen

Psalm 78

Psalm 78 - Tell the next generation

*Tell the next generation
The glorious deeds of the Lord
For them to put their trust in God
And not forget the works of God*

Let us keep God's covenant
Let our hearts be loyal to Him
Let our spirits be faithful to Him
Let us live by his law

Let us not put God to the test
Let us not speak against God
Let us not keep on sinning
Let us not stop believing

Let us remember the power of God
The wonders He had shown us
He is full of compassion
His guidance is always safe

Psalm 79

Psalm 79 - It is hard for us to see

It is hard for us to see
Your chosen ones invaded
Your holy temple defiled
Your city reduced to rubble

*Help us, O God of our salvation
For the glory of your name
Deliver us and forgive our sins
For the sake of your name*

It is hard for us to see
The dead bodies of your servants
Given as food for the birds
The flesh for the animals

It is hard for us to see
The groans of the prisoners
Those condemned to die
Sheep of your pasture in pain

Psalm 81

Psalm 81 - If we listen to God

*If we listen to God
Will He not reveal His thoughts?
If we follow His ways
Will we not live in safety?*

He can remove the burden from our shoulders
Our hands can be set free from the baskets

He can rescue us from our distress
Our ears can hear His answers from the secret place

He can feed us with the finest of wheat
Our lives can be filled with honey from the rock

Psalm 82

Psalm 82 - Will God say, "Well done"

*Will God say, "Well done"
To those who are in power?
Will God say, "Well done"
To the leaders of His flock?*

Will He say, "The leaders know nothing"?
Will He say, "They understand nothing"?

Will He say, "They walk about in darkness"?
Will He say, "The foundations are shaken"?

Will He say, "How long will they judge unjustly"?
Will He say, "How long will they favor evil"?

Psalm 83

Psalm 83 - If you belonged to the world

*If you belonged to the world
The world will love you as its own
Out of the world, God has chosen you
That is why the world hates you*

The world can plot together
The world can form an alliance
The world can scheme against you
But they will see the power of God

The world can make a tumult
The world can rear their heads
The world can plan to possess
But they will see the power of God

God will show His power
So the world will seek His name
The world will come to know
The Most High over all the earth

Psalm 84

Psalm 84 - I love the house of God

*I love the house of God
Because I love the God of the house*

My soul longs, even faints
For the courts of the Lord
My heart and my flesh
Cry out for the living God

My strength is in you, Lord
I feel blessed and renewed
My heart is set on a pilgrimage
Standing in awe of your power

I would rather be a doorkeeper
In the house of my God
Than live the good life
In the homes of the wicked

Psalm 85

Psalm 85 - The Lord will give what is good

*The Lord will give what is good (2)
He will show favor to us*

Mercy and truth meet together
Justice and peace kiss each other

Truth shall spring out of the earth
Justice shall look down from heaven

Righteousness goes before Him
Prepares the way for His steps

Will He be angry with us forever?
Will His anger never cease?
Will He not revive us again?
Will we not rejoice in Him?

Psalm 86 - Teach me your way, O Lord

*Teach me your way, O Lord
I will walk in your truth
Give me an undivided heart
That I may fear your name*

For great is your love toward me
You have delivered my soul
From the realm of the dead
I will praise you with all my heart

For you are ready to forgive
Abounding in love to all
Those who call upon you
I will trust you with all my heart

For you have comforted me
Show me a sign of your goodness
Show your strength to your servant
I will glorify your name forever

Psalm 88 - Are you in the lowest pit?

Are you in the lowest pit?
Are you in the darkest depths?
Do you feel the wrath of God?

*You can call to God for help
You can spread your hands to Him
You can cry out day and night
God is the one who can save you*

Are there no friends to share?
Your pain heavy to bear?
Do you feel God doesn't care?

Are you overwhelmed with troubles?
Does your life draw near to death?
Are you one who has no strength?

Psalm 89

Psalm 89 - Who is mighty like you, O Lord

Who is mighty like You, O Lord?

Who in the skies can compare with You?

Who is mighty like You, O Lord?

Who is like You among the heavenly hosts?

Your love stands firm forever

Your arm is mighty in power

Your wonders, the heavens praise You

Your faithfulness, the saints praise You

Your name we rejoice in all day long

Your favor lifts us, makes us strong

Psalm 90

Psalm 90 - In this morning, satisfy us

*In this morning, satisfy us
Lord with your unfailing love
That we may sing for joy
And be glad all our days (2)*

A thousand years in your sight
Like a watch in the night
You turn men back to dust
And sweep away in the sleep of death

Teach us to count our days right
We may gain a heart of wisdom
Have compassion on your servant
Please relent and make us glad

May your deeds be shown to your servant
And your splendor to their children
May your favor rest upon us
Establish the work of our hands

Psalm 91

Psalm 91 - Jehovah Shammah Jehovah Jireh

If you make the Most High Your dwelling
Then no harm will overtake you
No disaster will come near your tent
You will rest in the shadow of El Shaddai

Jehovah Shammah Jehovah Jireh Jehovah Nissi, El-Royi

He will command His angels
To guard you, in all your ways
They will lift you up, so that you will not Strike your foot, against a stone

He will save you, from the snare
From the deadly, pestilence
He'll cover you, with His feathers
Under His wings, you'll find refuge

You'll not fear, the nights terror
And the arrow, that flies by day
With long life, He will satisfy
And show you, His salvation

Psalm 92

Psalm 92 - Fresh and Green

Fresh and Green
I'll be Fresh and Green
Bearing fruit
In this age

It is good
To praise the Lord
Make music
To His name

I'll tell His love
In the morning
And at night
His faithfulness

He makes me glad
By His deeds
I sing for joy
For what He has done

Psalm 93

Psalm 93 - Focus on the throne above you

Focus on the throne above you

Not on the threats around you

The Lord reigns, yes, He reigns
The Lord is robed in majesty
The Lord is armed with strength
The Lord reigns, yes, He reigns

The Lord is mighty, yes, He is mighty
Mightier than the thunder
Mightier than the sea breakers
The Lord is mighty, yes, He is mighty

The Lord is holy, yes, He is holy Holiness adorns His house
He is holy forever and ever
The Lord is holy, yes, He is holy

Psalm 94

Psalm 94 - He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?

*He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?
He who formed the eye, shall He not see?
He who instructs the nations, shall He not correct?
He who teaches man knowledge, shall he not know?*

When our foot is slipping
Your mercy, O Lord, will hold us up
When our anxiety is great
Your comforts delight my soul

How long will the wicked triumph?
When will fools become wise?
Who will rise up for us?
Who will take a stand for us?

The Lord knows the thoughts of man
He knows that they are futile
Blessed is the one He disciplines
And teach out of His law

Psalm 95

Psalm 95 - Come, let us sing for joy

Come, let us sing for joy
Sing for joy to the Lord
Let us come before Him
Before Him with thanksgiving

*For the Lord is the great God
The great King above all gods*

Come, let us bow down
Bow down in worship
Let us kneel before Him
Before the Lord our Maker

Come, let us hear His voice
The voice of our God
Let us listen to Him
And not harden our hearts

Psalm 96 - Glory In His Name

*Ascribe to the Lord, O families of nations
Ascribe to the Lord, glory and strength
Ascribe to the Lord, the glory due His name
O glory, glory, glory in His name (2)*

Declare His glory among the nations
His marvelous deeds among all peoples
Sing to the Lord, all the earth
Proclaim His salvation day after day

Wealth and honor come from you Lord
You are the ruler of all things Father
Give thanks to the Lord, He is so good
Our father's love endures forever and ever

Remember the wonders and His miracles
Great is the Lord, worthy of praise
Look to the Lord and His strength
Seek the Lord's ways all the time

Psalm 97

Psalm 97 - Light is sown for the righteous

*Light is sown for the righteous
Gladness for the upright in heart
Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous
And praise His Holy name*

The Lord reigns, let the earth rejoice
Let the distant shores rejoice
Righteousness and justice
Are the foundation of His throne

Fire goes in front of Him
Consumes His foes on every side
His lightnings light the world
The earth sees and trembles

The mountains melt like wax
In the presence of the Lord
The heavens declare His righteousness
And all the people see His glory

Psalm 98

Psalm 98 - When the Lord comes to judge

*When the Lord comes to judge
He will judge the world in righteousness
When the Lord comes to judge
He will judge all with equity*

Will we sing to Him a new song
For the great wonders He has done
His right hand and His holy arm
Have worked salvation for Him

Will we shout for joy, break forth in song
Make music with the harp
With trumpets and the sound of horns
Shout for joy before the king

Won't the sea resound and all in it
The world and all who live in it
Won't the rivers clap, clap their hands
The mountains sing, sing for joy

Psalm 99 - Exalt the Lord our God

*Exalt the Lord our God and worship Him
For the Lord our God is holy*

The Lord our God reigns
Let the peoples tremble
He dwells between the cherubim
Let the earth be moved

The Lord our God is great
He is high above all the peoples
Let us praise His awesome name
For the Lord our God is holy

The Lord our God loves justice
He answers those who call Him
He deals with our misdeeds
He is the God who forgives

Psalm 100

Psalm 100 - From generation to generation

*From generation to generation
His truth endures to all generations
Shout for joy to the Lord
His love endures forever and ever*

Enter His gates with thanksgiving
Enter His courts with praise

Worship the Lord with gladness
Come before Him with joyful songs

Know that the Lord, He is God
It is He who has made us

Psalm 101

Psalm 101 - I will because I love you

I will sing of your mercy and justice
I will sing praise to you, Lord
I will be careful; I will be careful
To lead a blameless life

I will, I will, I will Because I love you

I will conduct the affairs of my house
With a blameless heart
I will set nothing; I will set nothing
Wicked before my eyes

I will not cling to the deeds
Of what faithless people do
I will have nothing; I will have nothing
To do with what is evil

I will put to silence every morning
All the wicked in the land
I will cut off; I will cut off
Evildoers from the Lord's city

Psalm 102

Psalm 102 - This will be written

*This will be written
For the generation to come
That a people yet to be created
May praise the Lord*

The Lord sits enthroned forever
His fame will endure to all generations
He will arise and have compassion
The nations will fear His name

He looks down from His sanctuary
From Heaven He views the earth
To hear the groans of the afflicted
To respond to all our prayers

Our days might vanish like smoke
Bones might burn like a hearth
Heart might wither like grass
But our Lord can rebuild our lives

Psalm 103 - How Great is God's Love

*How great is God's love
For those who fear Him
Greater than the distance Between heaven and earth*

He crowns us with love and compassion
He fills our life with great blessings
He is merciful and gracious
Slow to anger and rich in love

He will not harbor his anger forever
He does not treat us as our sins deserve
He is merciful and gracious
Slow to anger and rich in love

My soul, praise the Lord
Praise His Holy name
My soul, praise the Lord
Forget not all he's done

Psalm 104

Psalm 104 - May the glory of the Lord

*May the glory of the Lord
Endures forever
May the Lord rejoice
In His works
May our meditation
Be pleasing to Him*

You are dressed in a robe of light
You stretch out the heavens like a curtain
You make the clouds your chariot
You ride upon the wings of the wind

You make the winds your messengers
You make the flames of fire your servants
You set the earth on its foundations
You made the waters flow everywhere

You made the moon to mark the seasons
You made the sun; it knows when to go down
You bring darkness; it becomes night
Your works are many, many, O Lord

Psalm 105

Psalm 105 - O what a blessing

*O what a blessing
To be among the chosen ones
Of the loving God
Who is our Lord and Savior*

He goes the extra mile
To take care of us
He does great wonders
To preserve us

What He has done
Declares who He is
What we have done
We are unworthy

How can I forget
To proclaim His name?
How can I cease
From praising Him?

Psalm 106

Psalm 106 - Today if you hear Gods voice

*Today, if you hear God's voice
Do not harden your hearts
Today, if we hear God's voice
Let's not harden our hearts*

We have sinned and we've done wrong
We gave no thought to His miracles
We forgot His many kindnesses
But He saved us with His mighty power

We forgot what He had done
We didn't wait for His counsel
We gave in to our craving
But He saved us with His mighty power

We grumbled in our tents
We didn't believe His promises
We were bent on rebellion
But He saved us with His mighty power

Psalm 107

Psalm 107 - Let the redeemed of the Lord

*Let the redeemed of the Lord
Give thanks to the Lord
For His unfailing love
And His wonderful deeds*

For the Lord is good
His love endures forever
Let the redeemed of the Lord
Tell their story of redemption

For the Lord is good
He satisfies the longing soul
Let the redeemed of the Lord
Tell of His works with songs of joy

For the Lord is good
He stills the storm to a whisper
Let the redeemed of the Lord
Exalt Him in the assembly

Psalm 108

Psalm 108 - With God we will gain the victory

*With God we will gain the victory
For the help of the man is worthless
With God we will gain the victory
He will give us help from all troubles*

For great is His love, higher than the heavens
His faithfulness reaches to the skies

For great is His love; His loved ones are delivered
His right hand will help all of us

For great is His love; let Him be exalted
Let His glory be over all the earth

Psalm 109

Psalm 109 - Deal with me, O God my Lord

*Deal with me, O God my Lord
For the sake of your name
Your faithful love is good
My heart is wounded within me*

For I am poor and needy
I fade away like an evening shadow
I am shaken off like a locust
An object of scorn to my accusers

For people who are deceitful
Have opened their mouths against me
They surround me with hateful words
And attack me without cause

For you stand beside the needy
To save from those who condemn them
With my mouth I will praise you
Praise you in the midst of many

Psalm 110

Psalm 110 - Adonai, you are a mighty warrior

Adonai, you are a mighty warrior

Adonai, you are a priest forever

Rule in the midst of your foes

Your troops will be willing

In the day of Your power

In the beauties of holiness

From the womb of the dawn

You have the dew of Your youth

You are the lion of the tribe of Judah

The root and the offspring of David

And the bright Morning Star

His deeds are glorious and majestic
His righteousness endures forever

No matter what happens
Remember the wonders of the Lord
He is gracious and compassionate
He remembers His covenant forever

No matter what happens
Remember the power of His works
His precepts are trustworthy
He ordained His covenant forever

Psalm 112

Psalm 112 - Even in darkness

*Even in darkness
Light dawns for the upright
Their hearts are secure
They'll have no fear*

Their children will be mighty
Generation will be blessed
Riches are in their houses
Blessed are those who fear the Lord

They will never be shaken
Will be remembered forever
Will have no fear of bad news
Hearts are fixed, trusting in God

Good will come to the generous
Who conduct affairs with justice
They scatter their gifts to the poor
Their horn will be lifted high in honor

Psalm 113

Psalm 113 - Who is like the Lord our God

*Who is like the Lord our God
The One who sits enthroned on high
Who stoops down to look
On the heavens and the earth*

From the rising of the sun
To the place where it sets
The name of the Lord
Is to be praised

He raises the poor from the dust
Lifts the needy from the ash heap
The name of the Lord
Is to be praised

He is high above all nations
His glory above the heavens
The name of the Lord
Is to be praised

Psalm 114

Psalm 114 - In the presence of the Lord

*In the presence of the Lord
There is joy and peace
In the presence of the Lord
There is immense glory
In the presence of the Lord
There is fear and trembling
In the presence of the Lord
Every knee will bow down*

The mountains leaped like rams
In the presence of the Lord
The hills leaped like lambs
In the presence of the Lord

The rock turned to a pool
In the presence of the Lord
The flint turned to fountain
In the presence of the Lord

The sea looked and fled
In the presence of the Lord
The earth has to tremble
In the presence of the Lord

Psalm 115 - Not to us O Lord

*Not to us, O Lord, not to us
But to Your name be the glory*

Some may rely on the gods people make
Those who trust in them will become like them

Some may trust in You, the God who is in heaven
You will remember them and bless them

Some may be small, some may be great
When they fear You, they will be blessed

Psalm 116

Psalm 116 - As long as I live

*As long as I live
I will call on the Lord
I will call, I will call
On the name of the Lord*

The Lord is gracious
The Lord is righteous
He is full of compassion
He heard my voice
And He saved me
I love, Oh, I love the Lord

I will lift up
The cup of salvation
For all his goodness to me
I will pay my vows
I will serve Him
I love, Oh, I love the Lord

The pains of death
The pangs of Sheol
Laid hold of me
He has saved me
I will trust Him
I love, Oh, I love the Lord

Psalm 117

Psalm 117 - Who should praise the Lord

Who should praise the Lord?

All the nations

All the Jews

And all the Gentiles

Who should extol Him?

All the people

Men and women

And all the children

Why should one praise the Lord?

For great is His love

His love for all

For you and me

What endures forever?

The truth of the Lord

The truth of the Lord

Endures forever

Psalm 118 - God's Love Endures Forever

*God's love endures forever, forever
God's love endures forever*

In my anguish I cried to the Lord
And he answered by setting me free
The Lord is with me I will not be afraid
What can man do to me

I was pushed back, about to fall
He has helped me with His right hand
The Lord is my strength and He's my song
He has become my salvation

I will proclaim what He has done
He made His light shine on us
The Lord has done this and it's marvelous
I'll give Him thanks for He is good

Psalm 119

Psalm 119 - May those who fear you

*May those who fear You, Lord
Rejoice when they see me
For I have put my hope
My hope in Your word*

Your word is a lamp for my feet
Your word is a light on my path
You are my refuge and my shield
I have put my hope in Your word

Your word strengthens me
Your word preserves my life
You are my portion, O Lord
I have put my hope in Your word

Your word, Lord, is eternal
Your word is sweeter than honey
You are righteous, O Lord
I have put my hope in Your word

Psalm 120

Psalm 120 - Are you for peace? Are you for war?

*Are you for peace? Are you for war?
Are you for truth? Are you for lies?*

Call on the Lord
When you are in distress
In agony, pray more earnestly

Cry to the Lord
The Lord will save your soul
From lying lips and deceiving tongue

Wait on the Lord
It might be too long
Who can fathom the Spirit of the Lord?

Psalm 123

Psalm 123 - Let us lift up our eyes

Let us lift up our eyes (3)

To the Lord our God

As the eyes of servants
Look to their master's hand
We lift up our eyes
Till His mercy comes

As the eyes of a maid
Look to her mistress' hand
We lift up our eyes
Till His mercy comes

As those who have borne
So much contempt and pain
We lift up our eyes
Till His mercy comes

Psalm 124

Psalm 124 - If the Lord had not been on our side

If the Lord had not been on our side

We wouldn't be where we are now

Some troubles could have swallowed us

Some troubles could have devoured us

The waters could have overwhelmed us

The stream could have gone over our soul

The Lord has not given us as prey

He has saved us from the fowlers' snare

Psalm 125

Psalm 125 - As the mountains surround Jerusalem

*As the mountains surround Jerusalem
So the Lord surrounds his people*

Those who trust in the Lord
Are like Mount Zion
Which cannot be moved
But abides forever

Those whose hearts are upright
The Lord does good
The Lord will banish
The crooked with evildoers

The wicked will not rule
The land of the godly
Then the godly might use
Their hands to do evil

Psalm 126

Psalm 126 - Great things

*Great things, oh, great things!
The Lord has done great things
Great things, oh, great things!
We are filled with joy*

Those who dream and dream
Will see the goodness of God
Then nations will march
Carrying praises to God

Those who sow with tears
Will reap with songs of joy
Their hearts will be glad Carrying songs of joy

Those who go out weeping
Carrying seed to sow
Will return with songs of joy
Carrying sheaves with them

Psalm 127

Psalm 127 - God is the builder

*The builder of a house
Has more honor than the house
Someone builds the house
But God is the builder*

Unless the Lord builds the house
They labor in vain who build it
Unless the Lord guards the city
The guards stand watch in vain

It is vain for you to rise up early
It is vain for you to stay up late
It is vain to eat the bread of sorrows
God grants sleep to those He loves

It does no good to build a house
If there are no future generations
If what has been built survives
The builder will receive a reward

Psalm 128

Psalm 128 - Blessed is everyone who fears the Lord

Blessed is everyone who fears the Lord Blessed is everyone who walks in His ways

When you eat the labor of your hands
It shall be well with you

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house

Your children, like olive plants
Sitting around your table

May you see the prosperity
All the days of your life

Psalm 129

Psalm 129 - How can we say

How can we say
What happened to us
Plowmen have plowed our back
And made their furrows long

*One thing we can see is
That our Lord is righteous
No one could, no one could Gain the victory over us*

How can we say
What happened to us
We have been greatly oppressed
Oppressed from our youth

How can we say
What happened to us
May they be like grass on the roof
Which withers before it can grow

Psalm 130

Psalm 130 - I wait for Jehovah

*I wait for Jehovah
My whole being waits
In His word do I hope
My soul is waiting*

I put my hope in Jehovah
For with Him is unfailing love
He will redeem from all our sins
And with Him is full redemption

Out of the depths I cry to Jehovah
Let Him hear my plea for mercy
With Him there is forgiveness
So we can serve you with reverence

I wait for Jehovah (2)
More than watchman
Wait for the morning

Psalm 131

Psalm 131 - God gives grace to the humble

God gives grace to the humble
God resists the proud

Let us not concern ourselves
With great matters
Nor with things
Too profound for us

Let us be calm and quiet our souls
Like a weaned child
With his mother
So is our soul within us

Let us put our hope in the Lord
Both now and forevermore
Let us not be proud
Nor let our eyes be haughty

Psalm 132

Psalm 132 - Lord I take this time to pray

*Lord, I take this time to pray
For the ones you've called to lead
Lead your chosen ones, the saints
Kindly fill them with their needs*

You know their service for you
Restless days and sleepless nights
Facing lots of afflictions
Helping faithful ones to sing

When the saints go to your dwelling place
When they worship at your footstool
Clothe your priests with righteousness
Let the saints sing songs of praise

Clothe your priests with salvation
Bless the saints abundantly
Let the poor be satisfied
Faithful people always sing

Psalm 133 - Make every effort to keep

*Make every effort to keep
The unity of the Spirit
Through the bond of peace*

Live together in unity

How precious it is Like oil poured on the head
Flowing down upon the robe

How peaceful it is Like blessings from heaven
Falling freely upon the soul

Psalm 135

Psalm 135 - The Lord does whatever pleases Him

*The Lord does whatever pleases Him
In the heavens and on the earth
The Lord does whatever pleases Him
In the seas and all their depths*

He makes clouds rise
From the ends of the earth
He makes lightning
To go with the rain

He brings out the wind
From His storehouses
He does many wonders
For us to see His power

Your name, O Lord
Endures forever
Your fame, O Lord
Throughout all ages

Psalm 136

Psalm 136 - His mercy endures forever

*Give thanks to the God of gods
His mercy endures forever
Give thanks to the Lord of lords
His mercy endures forever*

He alone does great wonders
His mercy endures forever
By His wisdom, He made the heavens
His mercy endures forever

Spread out the earth upon the waters
His mercy endures forever
Gives food to every creature
His mercy endures forever

Made the sun rule by day
His mercy endures forever
The moon and stars rule by night
His mercy endures forever

Psalm 137

Psalm 137 - When something takes us to Babylon

*When something takes us to Babylon
Then we understand the value of Jerusalem*

How can we forget Jerusalem
The place of highest joy?
Can we find such joy
By the rivers of Babylon?

How can we sing the songs
The songs of our mighty God
While in a foreign land
In the midst of tormentors?

How can we digest the fact
That Jerusalem is in ruins?
What will happen to those Who cause us to suffer?

Psalm 138

Psalm 138 - I will praise you

*I will praise you, I will sing your praise
I will bow down toward your holy temple
I will praise your name
For your love and your faithfulness*

When I called you answered me
You made me bold and stouthearted
May the people of the earth praise you Lord
When they hear the words of Your mouth

Though I walk in the midst of trouble
You preserve my life O God
You will fulfill your purpose for me
Your love endures forever

Though the Lord is on high, he looks the lowly
But the proud He knows from afar
Let us sing of the ways of the Lord
For the glory of the Lord is great

Psalm 139

Psalm 139 - Where can I go from your Spirit?

*Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?*

If I go up to the heavens, you are there
If I make my bed in the depths, you are there
If I rise on the wings of the dawn, you are there
If I settle on the far side of the sea, you are there

You know when I sit and when I rise
You perceive my thoughts from afar
You discern my going out and my lying down
You are familiar with all my ways

Search me, God, and know my heart
Test me and know my anxious thoughts
See if there is any offensive way in me
And lead me in the way everlasting

Psalm 140

Psalm 140 - The Lord secures justice

The Lord secures justice
For the poor
And upholds the cause
Of the needy

*Surely the righteous
Will praise God's name
And the upright
Will dwell in His presence*

The Lord preserves the desires
Of the righteous
And fulfills the purposes
Of the diligent

The Lord hears the cries
Of the afflicted
And protects them
From evildoers

Psalm 141

Psalm 141 - Let us run with endurance

*Let us run with endurance
The race that is set before us
Let us lay aside every weight
And the sin that ensnares us*

May our prayer be like incense
Before the Lord, our God
May the lifting up of our hands
Be like the evening sacrifice

May our eyes be fixed on the Lord
May our hearts be drawn to Him
May our mouths be guarded
And the door of our lips watched

May the righteous strike us
It shall be a kindness
May the righteous rebuke us
It shall be an excellent oil

Psalm 142

Psalm 142 - When I praise your name, O God

*When I praise your name, O God
I want the righteous to surround me
Because of your goodness to me
And the way you set me free*

When my spirit felt weak within me
It is you who watch over my way
People have hidden a snare
In the path where I walk

When I am in desperate need
Deliver me from my tormentors
They are too strong for me
Listen to my cry, O God

When there is no one around me
I will lift up my voice to you
I say, "You are my refuge."
My portion in the land of living

Psalm 143 - For the sake of your name

*For the sake of Your name
Revive me, O Lord my God
For the sake of Your righteousness
Bring my soul out of trouble*

Show me the way I should go
For I lift up my soul to You
Let the morning bring me
Word of Your unfailing love

Teach me to do Your will
For You are my God
May Your good Spirit
Lead me on level ground

I meditate on all Your works
I muse on the work of Your hands
I spread out my hands to You
My soul longs for You

Psalm 144 - You are my loving God

*You are my loving God
You are my fortress
You are my stronghold
You are my deliverer
You are my shield
In whom I take refuge*

Part your heavens, Lord, and come down
Touch the mountains so that they smoke
Send forth lightning and scatter the enemy
Shoot your arrows and rout them

Reach down your hand from on high
Rescue me from the mighty waters
From those whose mouths are full of lies
Those whose right hands are deceitful

Then our sons in their youth
Will be like well-nurtured plants
Our daughters will be like pillars
Carved to adorn a palace

Psalm 145 - Every day let us praise Him

*Every day let us praise Him
Every day let us praise His name*

Every day He is gracious and full of compassion
Slow to anger and filled with unfailing love
Every day He is good, so good to all
And His mercies are over all His works

Every day He keeps all His promises
And faithful, so faithful in all he does
Every day He preserves all who love Him
And is righteous in all his ways

When we call Him
He is near to us
When we fear Him
We will be satisfied

Psalm 146 - What no one else can do

*What no one else can do
Our God will do for us
What no one else can do
Our God will do through us*

Let us put our trust in God
Not in princes or in men
They cannot save or help
Their breath returns to dust

Blessed are those whose hope
Is in the Lord their God
The Maker of the heavens
The earth and all within

Let us sing Hallelujah
The Lord reigns forever
He lifts up the lowly
And loves the righteous

Psalm 147

Psalm 147 - Great is our Lord and mighty in power

*Great is our Lord and mighty in power
His understanding is beyond measure

Who can cover the sky with clouds?
Who can call each star by name?
Who can supply the earth with rain?
Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving

Who can spread the snow like wool?
Who can scatter the frost like ashes?
Who can hurl down hail like pebbles?
Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving

Who can heal the brokenhearted?
Who can sustain the humble?
Who can fill you with the finest wheat?
Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving

Psalm 148 - Praise the Lord

*Praise Him, praise Him, praise the Lord
Praise the name of the Lord
Praise Him, praise Him, praise the Lord
Praise the name of the Lord*

From the heavens, praise the Lord
Praise Him in the heights above
All his angels praise the Lord
Praise Him, all His heavenly hosts

Sun and moon, praise the Lord
Praise Him, all you shining stars
Highest heavens, praise the Lord
Praise Him, waters above the skies

From the earth, praise the Lord
Praise Him, all creations
Kings and princes, praise the Lord
Praise Him, all the young and old

Psalm 149

Psalm 149 - All of you faithful people

*All of you faithful people
Praise our glorious Lord
All of you faithful people
Celebrate and worship*

For the Lord takes delight in His people
He crowns the humble with victory

May the praise of God be in your mouths
And a double-edged sword in your hands

May you praise His name with dancing
And make music with instruments

Psalm 150

Psalm 150 - With the trumpet call of God

*With the trumpet call of God
With the voice of the archangel
With the loud command the Lord will come
The dead in Christ will rise
And we who are still alive
Will meet the Lord in the air*

Praise Him for His acts of power
Praise Him for His surpassing greatness
Praise Him with the sounding of the trumpet
Praise Him with the harp and lyre

Praise Him with singing and dancing
Praise Him with the strings and the flute
Praise Him with the clash of the symbols
Praise Him in His mighty heavens

Let's shout it aloud and not hold back
Let's raise our voices like a trumpet
Declare to the people the Lord will come
And help them find joy in the Lord
